

Achieving Message Clarity: Head Movements and Non Manual Markers

When: Saturday, April 27 2024, 2024
Time: 1:00 – 3:00 pm PST (California)
Where: Zoom
0.2 CEU's

Join our third workshop this spring, focusing on the synergy of head movements and non-manual markers in sign language interpreting. Attendees earn 0.2 CEU's per workshop, accumulating to 0.8 CEU's for all four sessions. Delve into the importance of head movements for message clarity and cohesion, discovering how this visual element enhances communication with Deaf consumers. Uncover the secrets behind incorporating effective head movements into your interpreting practice. Elevate your skills and clarity – don't miss this opportunity to learn and grow.

Instructor: Dustin Yaeger BA

Dustin is a native user of American Sign Language and as a result, he brings the important perspective of being a consumer of interpreting services to mentoring/ training! He has worked as a translator in New York on projects that include the translation of science, history and social studies publications. He holds a bachelors degree in English and is a member of the Conference of Interpreter Trainers. In addition to teaching ASL, for the past 5 years Dustin has worked as a Deaf Interpreter and Interpreter Mentor with CCSLI INC. He is currently working as an Evaluator with the Sign Language Interpreter - Skills Evaluation (SLI-SE). Since 2022, Dustin has been serving as CCSLI's Director of Education.
